To the memory of

CLAUDIA LOVE

this book is

A SOLEMN SALUTE

The sudden passing of Claudia Love on the eve of her entrance into college life shocked and grieved the entire student body of the Heber Springs High School. Co-valedictorian of the 1960 graduating class, faculty-chosen outstanding student, fundamentally honest with high noble purpose, Claudia fell to her work with all her enthusiastic heart. Recipient of many distinguished honors, her life was an example of noble courage and a memorial of virtue. "Surely the soul of her, the glowing fervent soul of her, is flaming in eager joy upon some other dawn."

SEPTEMBER -

We all registered, school started, and we were soon back in "the ole routine."

AND SO IT WENT---

Another event of September was the informal FHA initiation. Here Sandra Crabtree gives some "instructions" to Carol, Bobsie, Gretchen, and Ara Sue.

OCTOBER -

The Homecoming royalty was announced in a special assembly. A surprised and happy Sue Massey was named the queen.

OCTOBER

Nothing expressed the spirit of Homecoming better than the Cheerleaders and the band as they led the parade.

NOVEMBER

Helen Herr's reign as Miss HSHS ended as 18 contestants vied for her title. Pat Edwards was sponsored by the Cheerleaders.

DECEMBER--

On Sunday, December 18, our new high school building was formally dedicated. Representative Wilbur D. Mills was the speaker.

JANUARY--

In January we started to school in our new building.

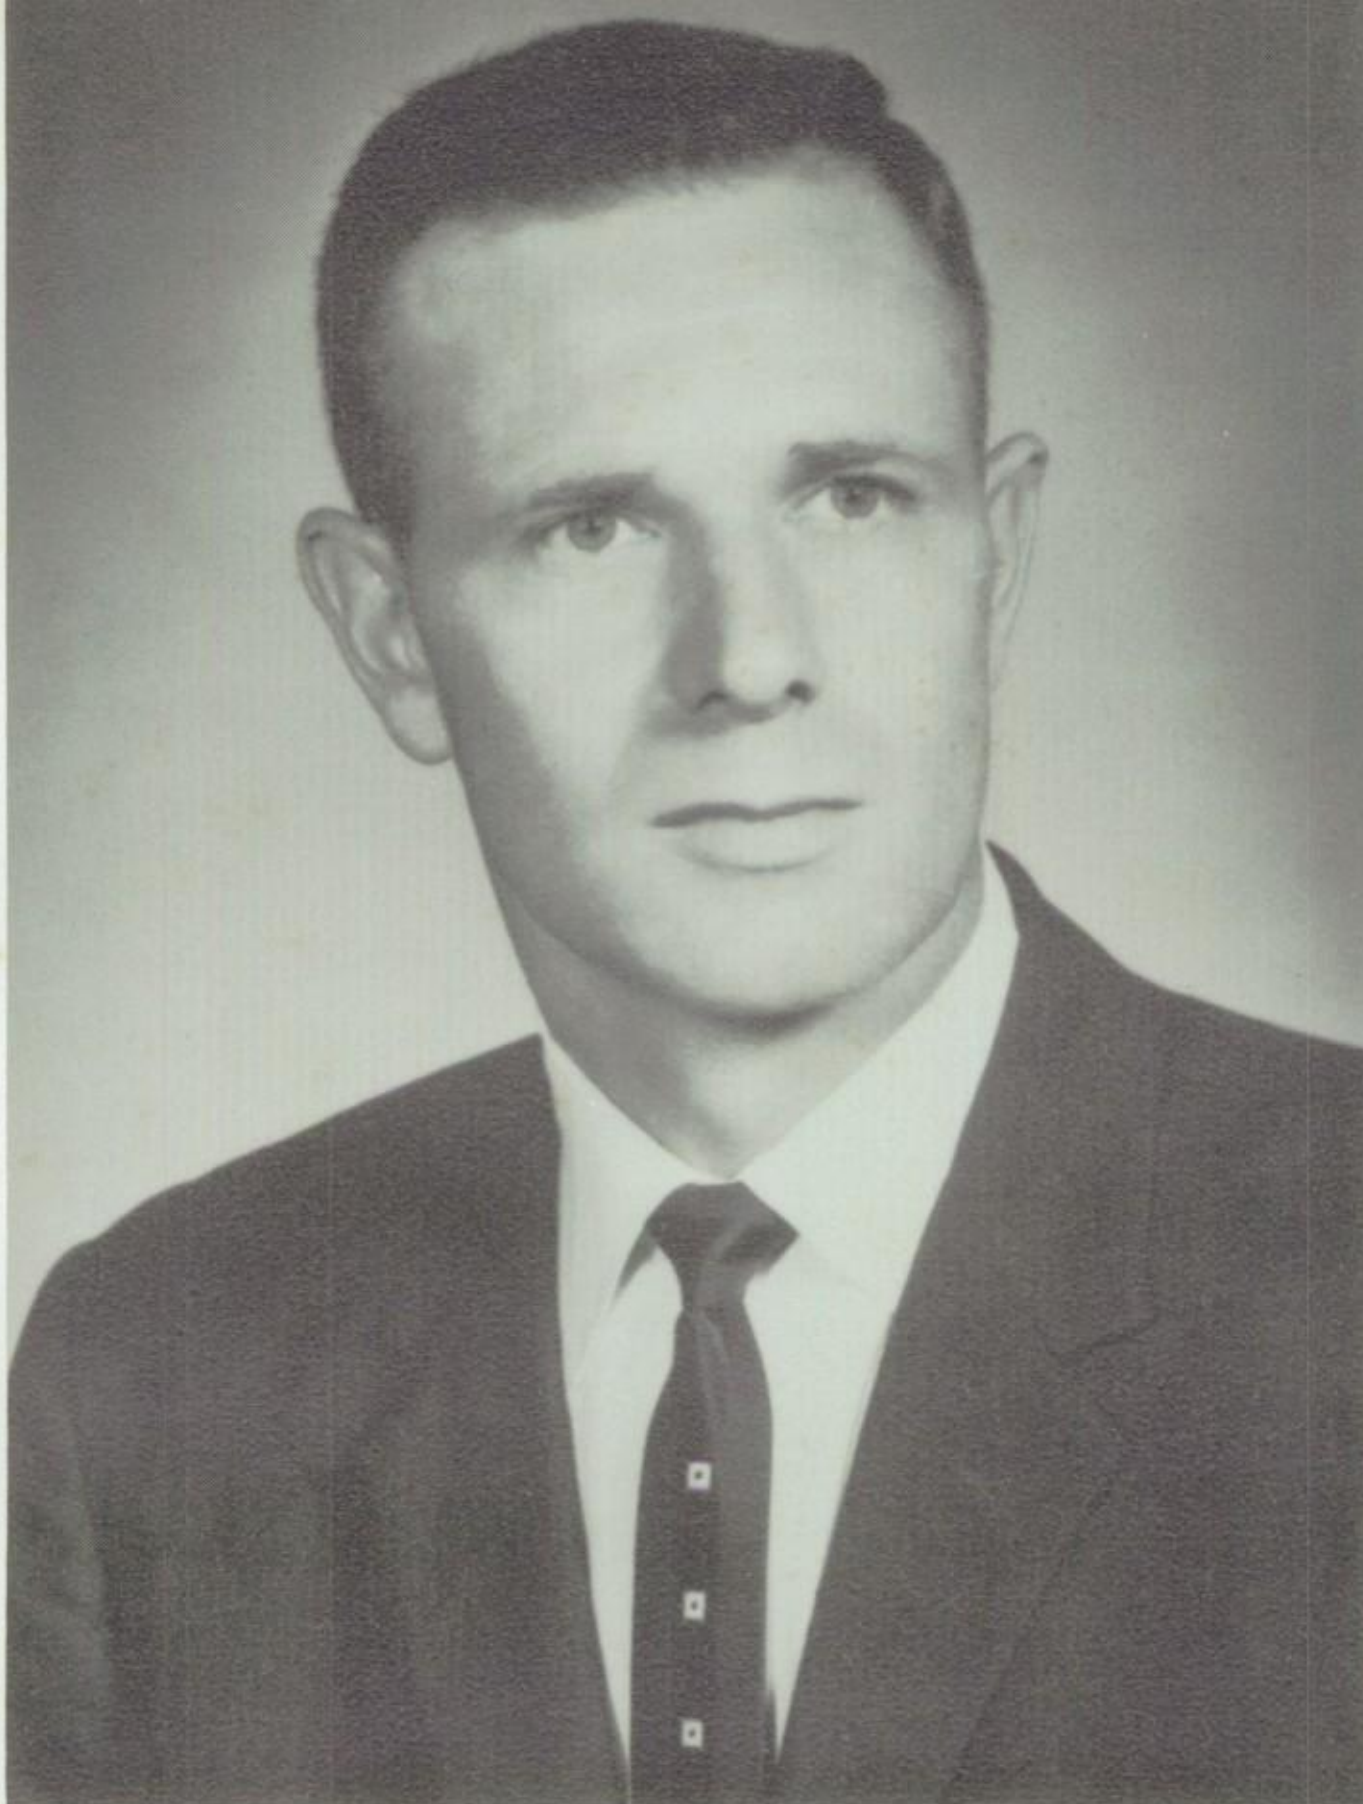

ADMINISTRATION

FACULTY

SCHOOL BOARD

Members of the Heber Springs School Board are: Mr. Cecil Alexander, Mr. Felts Rector (Secretary), Mr. Carl Deckard, Dr. Joe Robbins, Mr. James Castleberry (Superintendent of Schools), and Mr. Oscar Patchell (President). We wish to thank the School Board for their service and devotion to our school.

MR. JAMES T. CASTLEBERRY

Four years ago Heber Springs received one of the greatest blessings it has ever received. Mr. James T. Castleberry, who had been principal in the Mountain Home schools, became Superintendent of the Heber Springs schools. During these years Mr. Castleberry has not only endeared himself to the young people, but to the adults as well. He is always ready with a cheerful word of encouragement to all students.

As soon as it became evident that we would have Greers Ferry Dam on Little Red River, Mr. Castleberry could see a beautiful new school building in the near future also. He didn't stop working until his dream came true. Without him we would have nothing and with him we have everything. So we salute you Mr. Castleberry for the years of service you have given us and we hope there will be many more just like them. We also thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

MR. WALLACE SNEED is the High School Principal. He applies himself diligently to his many and varied duties. We wish to express our appreciation to him for helping to make this school year a memorable one.

S TUDENT LIFE

Looks like Pat is about to get the best of that bug.

Oopps! The bug got the best of Pat.

"Water, water!" After P. E. you've just got to have a drink of water.

Everyone seems to be having a good time working on the "Panther."

Sue receives congratulations after being named Homecoming Queen.

Mr. Olmstead was Master of Ceremonies at the Junior's party.

Sue Massey crowned David Rector as Mr. Irresistible.

Charlie, Gypsy, Mac, and Larry furnish entertainment for many school functions.

The Junior party was enjoyed by many Jr. and Sr. High students.

Nevin, what was that you were saying?

Andrea Lee and Rodney don't act like this all the time. Honest they don't.

Lynching' Mob: 1961 Style

May I please have your autograph?

Is it really part of HIS jersey?

Well, Kelly, that's one way of getting in.

"Singing in the Rain"

As sponsor of the annual, Mr. Stark had to help decorate the stage for the Miss HSHS Contest.

Mr. Olmstead obviously doesn't agree with the referee's decision.

Mrs. Crabtree does her bit for Beta Club.

Mr. Castleberry was put to work at the Band's pancake supper.

Guess Who?

Miss E. can be counted on to cheer for the Panthers, win, lose, or draw.

Queen Sue Massey led the Homecoming Parade.

The Band added to Homecoming festivities.

The Seniors worked hard on their entry in the parade. Building a rocket isn't easy.

The hoedowners float won first place in the Homecoming Parade.

Grade School youngsters enjoyed the parade.

What? Me worry???

Mumbo enjoyed the Junior Party.

Last minute rush, eh, Perk?

Ride 'em cowgirl!

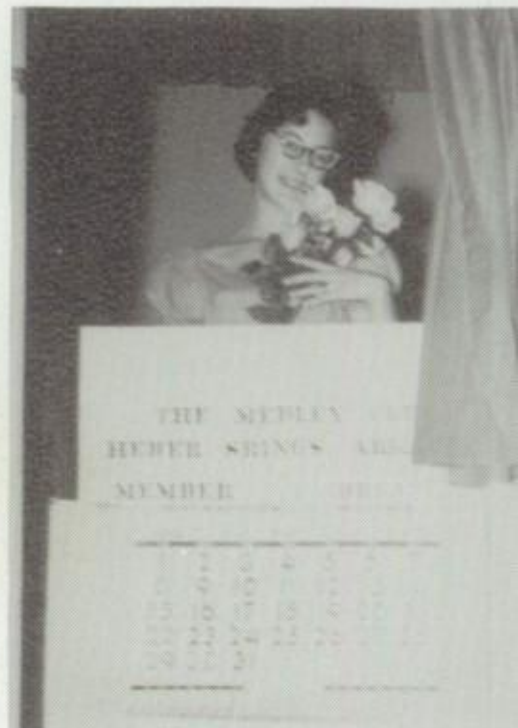

Back to the halls of knowledge.

The Seventh period girls are all set for P.E.

Kay Edwards, Sandra Crabtree, and Judy Watkins are shown making an "inspection tour" of our new building during the summer.

Joyce, Helen, Roselle, and Threasa were in a skit at the Junior Party.

They're all studying so hard, I can't believe it!

What??

Richard Beard, Glen Nugent, Maurice Jennings, Dennis DeBusk,
David Rector, Gary
Daves, and Alvis
Arnold served as Patrol
Boys at the old school.

Daniel and Bonnie seem very well occupied with their typing.

Do Not Disturb.

Where's the fire?

The Football Royalty certainly must have gotten tired of having their pictures taken.

You've gotta sink or swim, Andy. Take your choice.

Betty Sibert entered the Miss HSHS contest for the Sophomores.

What are they feeding you, Carol??

The dedication of our new building was an impressive occasion.

With a Home Ec. Department as nice as the one we have now, you can almost enjoy cooking.

With halls as large as this one, you'd think a person would have no trouble getting from class to class. Guess again.

Kay Morton favors the camera with a smile before the start of the Miss HSHS Parade.

Offhand, I'd say that Helen was slightly mad at Jim.

Patty's all ready for any of those April showers.

Gretchen Swartz was a freshman entry in the Miss HSHS Contest.
